importance to note. The times continue "hard" and the prospects by no means encouraging for an improvement. There is no special demand for money for commercial purposes and but little produce is being moved. In New York call loans are quoted at 3s4 per cent, and prime mercantile paper ranges from 41a6 per cent. Siste bonds are quiet and heavy, with sales of Virginia consols at 667.67. LOCAL ITEMS

COUNTY ITEMS. - The county of Alexandria claiming to be entitled to furnish a successor to Capt. Fowle, in the House of Delegates, the Republicans of the city and county will probably nominate a countyman for that office, when their convention meets in this city on the 15:h of May. There are but two names mentioned thus far, and they are Capt, H. Dwight Smith and John B. Syphax, the latter no doubt will receive the nomination, as it is well un derstood that Capt. Smith is a candidate for the office of County Treasurer. Syphax was elected to the House of Delegates in 1874 and served his term out. He was elected County Treasurer last fall, but not qualifying, the present worthy incumbent was oppointed. He is the acknowledged leader of the Republicans of the county.

The many friends of Justice Ben. Austin, of Arlington, will be glad to learn that he is recovering from his broken leg. Justice A. appears to be in excellent spirits, and is taken good care of at the residence of his brother in Washing-

The band of Gipsies which encamped at Roache's Springs, in Virginia, near the Long bridge, have folded their tents and flitted away to pasture new as silently as they came, and the chickens in the vicinity are resting easier in consequence. The Republicans of the county will hold meetings in the different districts as soon as the chairmen of the District Committees call them, to elect delegates to the Convention that will meet on the 15th prox for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the House of Delegates.

The new Mt Zon Church, R. S. Lavs', in Freedman's Village, begun last fall, is standing in an unfinished state, owing to the absence of that "which makes the mare go.

POTOMAC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION .- The Association of Baptist Ministers and Deacons resumed its session at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and discussed the following subject: 'The great need of more and better preachers of the Gospel." The following facts were elicited: The Potomac Association, represented by these Minister and Deacons, consists of filtyone Churches, scattered through the counties of Stafford, Prince William, Fauquier, Fairfax, Loudoun, Frederick, Jefferson, Clarke and Berkeley. The First Baptist Church of Washington, and the Baptist Church, of this city, also belong to this body of Christians. There are about twenty five ministers supply ing these churches, whose aggregate membership is about four thousand.

Last night Rev. J. B. L ke preached a very abie and forcible sermon on "The work of the Holy Spirit.'

The Association met again this morning and listened to an exceedingly interesting paper, presented by Rev. II. H. Wyer on the "Histery and Prospects of the Foreign Mission Work of the Southern Baptist Convention,' which was followed by an earnest and impressive discussion. This paper represented that work as in a most hopeful and encouraging condition. This Convention has missionaries in China, Africa and Italy. In the latter country they have seven Churches, and this mission is superintended by Rev. Geo. B. Taylor, formerly of Staunton, in this State.

This evening a sermon will be delivered in the Baptist Church by Rev. J. L. Carroll, of but so lawyer could have prepared the case by evening, about five o'clock, while the carriage of Mr. J. P. Agnew, of this city, driven by his colored coachman, and containing Mrs. Thomas, of Maryland, who is Mr. Agnews mother inlaw, and that gentleman's wife and daughter, was coming from Washington, over the turn pike, it was overtaken at Four-Mile Run, by the 5 p. m. local train from Washington. The railroad and turnpike pass under parallel arches at the point named. The train dashed out of one arch as the carriage emerged from the other, and one of the horses taking fright, shied to the right, thereby pushing the other horse over the embankment, which is about ten feet high. The carriage was dashed against the masonly of the arch and badly damaged, but the ladies and the horses escaped without injury. The animals were speedily extricated from the harness and driven to this city, and the ladies, having been assisted to alight from the wrecked carriage by some gentlemen who were fishing near by, returned on the next train. Mrs. Thomas, who is quite an old lady, was at first thought to have been injured by the accident, but a medical gentleman from Washington, who happened to be at the run, after making an examination, declared that no bones were broken. Had the carriage been dragged over the embaukment it would certainly have fallen into the deep, swift waters of the run, and the danger of drowning the occupants would have been great.

SAD CASE. - Mention was made in yesterday's Gazette of the arrest and detention of a young man, Theodore Batterson, suspected of lunacy. He was visited at the jail yesterday evening by some members of the Masonic frateruity, who ascertained that he was a Mason. and a member of Cohocs Lodge, No. 116, of Cohoes, N. Y. Members of the fraternity here telegraphed to the members of Cohoes Lodge asking instructions as to the disposition to be made of the man, and an answer was received this morning from his broth-"lake care of him, will come for him." Meanwhile everything is being done for his comfort that is possible. He is said to be a perfect gentleman and well educated, and his unfortunate condition has attracted much sympathy.

ROBBERS CAPTURED AND GOODS RECOV. ERED. Officer James Smith, who has been on the lookout for several days, succeeded yesterday evening in capturing John Penn, a white youth, and Charles Contee, a colored one, charged with robbing the fish house of John Beckley about a week ago. The officer had a considerable chase after Penn, who ran through Yeaton's marsh and out beyond Colross before he was overtaken. The officer also found the fish at the house of a colored man named Wm Morgan, who keeps a saloon near Fishtown. Penn and Contee were examined last evening by Justice May, and sentenced to work on the chain gang for thirty days each. Morgan was fined for buying the stolen fish.

POLICE REPORT.-The following cases have been examined at Police Headquarters since

John Penn, white, and Charles Contee, colored, for stealing fish from John Beckley, were sent to the chain gang for thirty days. Wm Morgan, colored, for buying the same fish from the thieves, was fined and discharged. Ro. Nakens, colored, for disorderly conduct, was discharged with a reprimand. Seven lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

OVERBOARD. - The mate of the schooner River Queen, a young man named Charles Green, while walking along the staging at Fishtown, this morning, to reach his vessel, slipped and fell overboard, where he was in imminent danger of drowning, until hauled out by some of the bystanders.

UNFOUNDED. - - Some days since a report was published in the Gazette, of the return of Mr. George W. Carter, to the ministry, which report has been extensively copied throughout the country. Upon further investigation, it is ascertained that the report was entirely incor-

THE WEATHER. - The weather this morning was quite warm and even sultry, ending this afternoon in showers of rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning.

TELEGRAPH NEWS. FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28, 1876.-The Senate occupied its first half hour in routine business, Mr. Withers, of Virginia, reporting

THE IMPEACIMENT. At 12:30 the Senate resolved itself into a Court of Impeachment. Soon afterwards the Managers answered, and

The Chair announced that the pending question was, upon the motion of the Managers, submitted yesterday, to the effect that the Court take testimony on the facts relating to the plea to the jurisdiction, and then, if the plea is overruled, that the defendant have two days to plead over, and the House two days to reply, and that the trial proceed one day after issue joined.

Mr. Carpenter said that the Managers seemed to desire to control both sides. He could only give the answer of the Pope to the King: When the question arises and is debated 1 will do what is proper." He urged that the defence desired now no delay, but the question was a most important one. It was, whether this Senate has criminal jurisdiction over forty millions of people, and surely no undue haste should be taken in determining it.

Mr. Lord, in reply, reminded the counsel for the defence that they had said, on the 19th inst., that, as soon as the House presented a general replication, they would be ready to proceed.

Mr. Carpenter said even the Almighty employed human instruments in His Providence. and Mr. Belknap could do no better. He had only men for his counsel, and they were willing | to do all that men could do to speed the cause, would not refuse the courtesy of time to pre-

Mr. Lord said the position of the Managers was not that of counsel in a Court, and their official character would preclude them from either granting or asking courtesies. He was sure that as to the preparation, where there is a will there is a way.

Senator Conkling introduced an order that the court proceed first to determine whether it possessed jurisdiction to try Gen. Belkuap if he was not Secretary of War at the time of im peachment, reserving, without prejudice, the questions as to whether in fact Mr. Belknap was secretary, &c., for future considera-

Mr. Lord opposed this order.

Mr. Thurm in moved that the Senate retire for consultation, which was lost.

Mr. Thurman moved that the rules be suspended so as to allow open debate.

Mr. Howe objected. Mr. Elmonds moved to amend the order of

Mr. Conkling so as to allow counsel to discuss whether the issues of fact are material. Mr. Hamlin moved to suspend the rules to allow Mr. Thurman ten minutes to speak. Mr. Thurman declined to take any privilege that did not belong to every Senator. He thought that the subject should be debated here or elsewhere. The Senate then voted to retire, and upon returning ordered the argument to be heard on the question of jurisdiction; the other matters relative to be discussed at the same time and the proceedings begin the fourth of May.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. In the House of Representatives a resolution was introduced calling upon the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for information in reference to the "direct" taxes collected, and the disposition made thereof. A communication from the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House, enclosing an opinion of Julge Cartter, discharging from the cu-tody of the House, Hallet Kilbeurne, the'r cusint witness, was read and referred to the Judiciary Committee, and the opinion was ordered to be printed. A resolution authorizing the Managers of the impeachment trial to call before the Court members of the House as witnesses, was adopted.

The Civil Appropriation bill was then taken up, further considered amended and passed. NOMINATION WITHDRAWN.

The announcement that Annable had been appointed and confirmed as pension agent at Norfolk, vice Mr. Chandler, deceased, turns out to have been premature. The nomination was made at the instance of parties that were supposed to represent the wishes of the party, but upon the exposition of the character of Annable, who went to Norfolk just after the war and was judicted in Henrico county for embezziement, removed from the office of treasurer, &c., the nomination has been withdrawn, and it is most proba-

The case of Hallet Kitbourn was decided by Chief Justice Cartter this morning. Sceretary Fish's communication respecting the extradition of Winslew was delivered to the British Foreign Office on Saturday last, but is ucanswered yet. It is not known what course will be pursued when Winslow's time expires. The ground taken by Secretary Fish is that, clause 27 of the act of 1870, under which the Brit sin Government claims that America should give an assurance that the prisoners shall be tried for no other offence than the one for which he is extradicted, specifies that whatever is inconsistent with existing treaties shall be excepted from the operation of that act. America has presented this point several times, but England so far has ignored it. The assertion by the London papers that America had refused to give the assurance required by England is incorrect, as America has never admitted or consented to discuss that question at all.

Extensive ' windling.

SPRINGFIELD, O . April 28 .- A man named John T. Norris, who lives in this city, is carrying on a systematic and a very extensive swindling business. He advertises his headquarters at Springfield and Cincinnati, and orders goods and products of various sorts from firms in all parts of the Union and Canada, re terring them to bankers and other business men in this city. When the goods arrive they are immediately taken from the express offices or freight depots and transferred to other parties for any amount Norris or his confederates can get for them. Norris was in the Ohio penitentiary for swindling nearly a year, but was discharged through a legal technicality, and has been carrying on his !-usiness since on a larger scale than before. He claims to have massed $40,000 by this style of business.

Funeral.

New York, April 28. - The funeral of the ate Barney Williams took place to-day at St. Stephens' (Roman) Catholic Church, and was largely attended, including a number of mem bers of the theatrical profession. His remains were interred in Greenwood Cemetery. There was a profuse display of floral offerings.

Boston, April 28 - Archur P. Devlin, who has achieved some notoriety in New England as an anti Catholic lecturer, was arrested here to-day for circulating obscene pamphlets, devoted to the exposure of alleged immoralities of priests.
